

Walking Day #123, Thursday, December 27, 2012...half day walking and a full moving day

Posted on Dec 30, Posted by Administrator Category The Walk Blog

Today we moved the motor home from Ozark, MO to Damascus, Arkansas and walked a half day. We parked the motor home at Steve's Used Car which was just south of Valley Springs and north of Western Grove, still on route 65.

Steve served during Viet Nam and then became school principal. He has a son who is currently active duty. Thank you, gentlemen for your service and thank you for letting us park the rig on your lot. When the day was over we had walked 10.3 miles (16.6129 km's) under 21,586 steps. Findings for the day: 1 dime, 3 nickels and 1 "Track Coin" from The Track in Branson, MO. At a deli I bumped into Viet Nam vet David Powell, thank you for your service and thank you for your good wishes. After the walk we finished moving the motor home to the Damascus RV Park in Damascus, Arkansas with is about 40 miles from my driver's home. So we are closing in on the greater Little Rock area. Vic did some laundry and I went shopping after which we ate Christmas dinner leftovers. Cheers!!!

Tags: Untagged