

Walking Day #134...Saturday, January 12, 2013...warm rain

Posted on Jan 15, Posted by Administrator Category The Walk Blog

70% chance of rain. After about 12 minutes of walking I walked right into the 70%!!! The temps were so warm that I chose to walk without my rain pants so after about 4 3/4 minutes I was soaked, good thing it was warm. At the end of the day I only had to change shoes once. I was in a hurray as I wanted to get home to watch the Broncos and to make sure I got my 100+ miles for the week. When all was said and done the Broncos lost (OUCH!!!), I walked 19.2 miles (30.9677 km's) using 39,193 steps and found $0.26. I did get the hundo for the week as well. Findings for the day: 1 flat head screw driver, 1 quarter and 1 penny. Cheers!!!
