

Walking Day #146...Tuesday, January 29, 2013...more milestones!!!

Posted on Jan 31, Posted by Administrator Category The Walk Blog

Today, under threat of rain, we went from just east of Laurel to just west of Waynesboro, MS. for a total of 25.5 miles (41.1290 km's) using 50,357 steps and picking up $0.77. Findings of the day: 1 pair white "Wiley X" sunglasses, 1 one wallet with ID for one "Destinie" of Laurel, MS. (I will attempt to hand her information off to a police officer), 1 plastic copy of a penny (odd), 3 quarters and 2 pennies. Wildlife sighted: 1 turtle 8".

The milestones for the day are I crossed over 6 million steps for The Walk and I now have less than 1,000 miles to go.
