Short day today. 12.8 miles under 25,209 steps and $0.14 in loose change. Findings for the day: 1 Craftsman flat-head screw driver, 1 #19 socket, 1 dime and 4 pennies.

As I walked through Arcadia I stopped at the AMVETS Post 60 and chatted with some of the folks there. Floyd (the head guy) served in WWII and Leland served in Viet Nam. Thank you both for your service.

Thanks to half the people of Sunnys Grove (not-so-mobile) Mobile Home Park (they rent out a few slots for us vagabonds) who showed up at about 9:00 PM when we got in. They all gave me a hand as I backed the rig into the slot. I have trouble enough going forward, reverse is an adventure. Ian was rather patient as he directed me backwards. No property was damaged in the process and nobody died!
