well here we are in Ireland...stopped in London for a couple of days and then Liverpool for a long day...a short flight and here we are in Cork...soooooooooo much history here!!!...people very friendly, weather very iffy and today we shall see if the golf game is there!!!...historical sights all over the place, after 2000 years plus there certainly is something man-made to see...so far my favorite has been the Cavern where the Beatles got their start,WOW!!!...we happened to hit Liverpool as a huge music festival was in progress as well as a "football" match...I shall have some photos posted as soon as I figure out how to get them to the web-master...cheers!!!
