Friday we got 23.3 miles with 45,949 steps...items found, two useful bungee cords, one hitch pin clip and a pink cell phone...that stretch of road is a little cleaner as I decided to start picking up trash along the way, I bought one of those "grabbers" and started picking, not a good idea to give a guy with serious "OCD's" a grabber, an empty trash bag and say "go pick stuff up",ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!!...so what did I do, filled up one grocery bag with crushed cans and bottles and vowed to get a bigger bag tomorrow!!!...weather is fine, gentle breeze, clear skies, bordering on hot...saw several deer and a couple of pronghorn antelope, not as much road-kill on this stretch of road...I did start the day out breaking in new shoes, old ones are down to their last few days so I have nine brand new pairs that have to get broken in...tomorrow will see us get to Roundup and prepare to move Sunday...cheers!!!
